

David Frazer
Manulife Bank of Canada

David brings over 26 years of experience in the financial services industry to his role as Regional Vice President. David comes to Manulife Bank with a breadth of industry experience, most notably in the banking and group savings marketplace. Known for his dedication to leading exceptional sales teams, David has a proven track record of building strong relationships with growing and established advisors alike. Prior to joining Manulife in 2004, David spent time in Sun Life's group savings division leading a marketing and plan member education team. Prior to that, David began his career in both retail and commercial banking with TD Bank.

David is a Certified Financial Planner (CFP™) and has earned both the Retirement Plans Associate (RPA) and Canadian Investment Manager (CIM) designations. He received a diploma in Business Administration from Conestoga College and remains actively involved with the college by serving as a program advisory committee member with the Faculty of Business. He also pursued a bachelor's degree in adult education from Brock University.

David lives in St. Jacobs and has two adult children 24 and 26. When he's not working with financial advisors, David enjoys spending time at the cottage, coaching minor hockey and touring the countryside on his motorcycle.
