

Grant Hooper, Business Development Manager – Toronto, Mississauga, and Oakville - Chartwell Retirement Residences

Grant is a Business Development Manager for the Toronto, Mississauga, and Oakville regions with Chartwell Retirement Residences. He joined the company in 2020 and brings extensive knowledge in sales & business development.

He's had the privilege to foster valuable community partnerships with individuals and organizations in the Toronto area and has recently taken on a larger property roster including Mississauga and Oakville.

Grant is charismatic, personable and works best with open lines of communication. In his free time, he likes to travel, explore food, and enjoys his endless collection of vinyl records.